AMENDMENTS TO MINING RECORD BILL AGREED TO.

County License Tax Measure Defeated — Memorial to Congress About Grazing Lands—Sheep Nuisance Bill—Proper Burial For Indigent Soldiers Proposed.

The steering committee aspointed by the house to ascertain the status of all house zonesures, made an appalling discovery when it became known that lower 150 bills and other measures are pending before the legislature. To stute the case more correctly, about one-third of the number of measures istroduced have been either rejected alroady or are likely to be slaughtered, leaving more than the number added on recommendation of the bill as closure special proposed.

making or other incident of an exciting mature.

Just before the ballot was called, Representative Callister announced that he would refrain from voting so his vote could be paired with that of Representative John E. Hansen, who had been summoned to the sick bed of his aged mother in Tooele. Representative Welch also paired his vote with Representative O'Neil's, because of the latter having been called home by the serious illness of his daughter. The absence of Senator Wright made the third vote short in the McCune column. Senator Peery, voting for Quil Nebeker, and Representative Milister, for George Sutherland, answered to roll call, having been absent on Monday. Otherwise there were no modifications in the result of the one hundred and thristen joint ballot. Immediately after the announcement of the result, the joint assembly dissolved until this noon.

CITY COUNCIL RESOLVES TO TAX DEALERS IN THE OCCULT.

Members Indulge In Criticism of the Legislature, But Agree to Furnish Them Heat-Buy a Rock Crusher.

Fortune-tellers, palm-readers, sevnth daughters, clairvoyants and professors of occuit science who sell their ms to gullible people for no mi will have to seek greener fields per, will have to seek greener fields than Salt Lake in which to ply their business. The city council last night passed an ordinance fixing the license for such business at $100 per year, which is practically prohibitive. This is just what the members intended it should be. There was no opposition to the measure, and as one of the members expressed it, the object was to clear the city of this class of swindlers. The vote on the ordinance was unanimous.

The council, or more strictly speak-The council, or more strictly speaking, some of the Republican members of the council, took occasion to critcise the legislature because that body had not done enough business to suit
the spotless Republican models of legslative activity who grace the council.
The opportunity for this digression was furnished by a request that the building be heated and the elevator kent running eventure as a the legiskept running evenings, so the legis-lature could hold sessions. Buckle declared the legislature had been frittering away time and as a tax-payer he would refuse to vote to ex-pend any further money on the law-

pend any further money on the lawmakers.
Callister found a chance to interpose
the remark that inasmuch as the lawmakers had done nothing so far, it was the duty of the council to help them along, even though they would have to do it by night.
Fernstrom thought it poor taste on the part of the council to chastise the legislature, and this acted as a cold water spray on further outbursts of Republican sarcasm. It was then decided to keep up the steam heat in the evening during the balance of the seesion.

session.

The city attorney sent in a letter recommending that James G. Reid be allowed to redeem certain property from a tax sale, upon payment of taxes, interest and costs in the sum of $32.30.

Adopted.
Frank Harrigan offered p sell to the city two sprinkling carts for $60 each. The matter was referred to the committee on sprinkling.

cost about $360, the report was unanimously adopted.

In the matter of the claim of Edwin Southam for $300 damages for injuries sustained while in the employ of the city, the committee on claims presented a report recommending that a compromise amount of $100 be allowed in full settlement. This was adopted.

The committee on municipal law recommended the payment of $1,000 to F. S. Richards for legal services in the case of J. H. Smith against the city. Adopted.

The council then took up and passed the ordinance authorizing the chief of police to use his discretion in the matter of committing unfortunate women to fail or the Woman's Home, after sentence has been passed on such by the police magistrate.

The sprinkling committee's report went over until the bids are opened next week.
